A Prayer in Spring

Robert Frost 1874 -1963

Oh, give us pleasure in the flowers to-day;
And give us not to think so far away
As the uncertain harvest; keep us here
All simply in the springing of the year.

Oh, give us pleasure in the orchard white,
Like nothing else by day, like ghosts by night;
And make us happy in the happy bees,
The swarm dilating round the perfect trees.

And make us happy in the darting bird
That suddenly above the bees is heard,
The meteor that thrusts in with needle bill,
And off a blossom in mid air stands still.

For this is love and nothing else is love,
The which it is reserved for God above
To sanctify to what far ends He will,
But which it only needs that we fulfil.

This poem is in the public domain.

RIDDLES

RIDDLE #1

I was a ship of grand design,
Sailing under the sun so fine.
With laughter echoing, hearts so light,
Onward we sailed through day and night.

But then I met an icy obstacle,
And my hull, she did buckle!
As mighty as I was built strong and tall,
Pride goeth before a fall.

What is my name that history writes?
A maritime disaster of all nights!

RIDDLE #2

I'm made of words, both short and long,
Lines that sing like a joyful song.
I paint pictures with phrases and rhyme,
Bringing adventures with every chime.

In libraries and books, you'll find my lair,
Filled with stories of wonder, beyond compare.
I transport you to lands near and far,
With characters bold, under moon and star.

I'm crafted with care by a poet's hand,
Bringing laughter and tears to every land.
Sometimes I'm silly, sometimes profound,
But in every verse, happiness is found.

So, kids, tell me, what am I?
