RIDDLES

RIDDLE 1

I twinkle in the night so bright,
Up in the sky, a shiny light.
Countless in number, I fill the space,
With a glowing beauty, I embrace.

From constellations to the Milky Way,
I guide the lost with a celestial display.
Though distant and far, I capture your gaze,
Who am I? Tell me, if you may!

RIDDLE 2

In ancient words, a story told,
Guidance for hearts, both young and old.
Many books within me reside,
With wisdom, love, and truth as my guide.

From Adam and Eve to the Savior's grace,
I hold the tales of faith throughout all time and space.
Read by many, cherished with care,
In places of worship or homes we share.

A holy tome revered worldwide,
A beacon of hope, a faithful guide.
So, young one, can you now tell,
What am I, treasured and known so well?
