Watch Me Write

"My Story of Kindness"

Kindness is like a little light that brightens someone's day. It could be a kind word, a helpful hand, or a moment when someone showed love and care for you. Follow these writing prompts or draw a picture of your kindness story on the 'Watch Me Draw' page. Let your creativity shine!

Think about these things: A time when someone's kindness made you feel happy, a moment when you helped someone and saw their smile, or a way you could spread kindness to make the world brighter.

Writing Prompt: Write a story about a time when you showed kindness or someone was kind to you. It could be something big, like helping a friend in need, or something small, like sharing a snack or saying kind words. How did it make you feel? What happened because of the kindness?

Writing Questions to Get Started:

- 1. What problem or situation does it help with?
- 2. How did you change your character or someone else's?
- 3. Was there a lesson or a happy moment?

Cryptogram Puzzle Instructions

A cryptogram is a secret code where letters are replaced with different letters. Your job? Crack the code and reveal the hidden quote!

Each letter in the puzzle stands for a different letter of the alphabet. In this example, if A = G and F = O, W = H so every time you see an A, write G, and every time you see an F, write O and so on.

As you fill in letters, you'll start recognizing words. Use those solved letters to crack other words and reveal the full message!

Outline Questions to Get Started:

Who is your main character? Are they showing kindness, receiving it, or both?

What is the act of kindness in your story? What problem or situation does it help with?

How does the kindness change your character or someone else?

How does the story end? Is there a lesson or a happy moment to remember?

Little Things

by Julia Abigail Fletcher Carney

(Written in 1845)

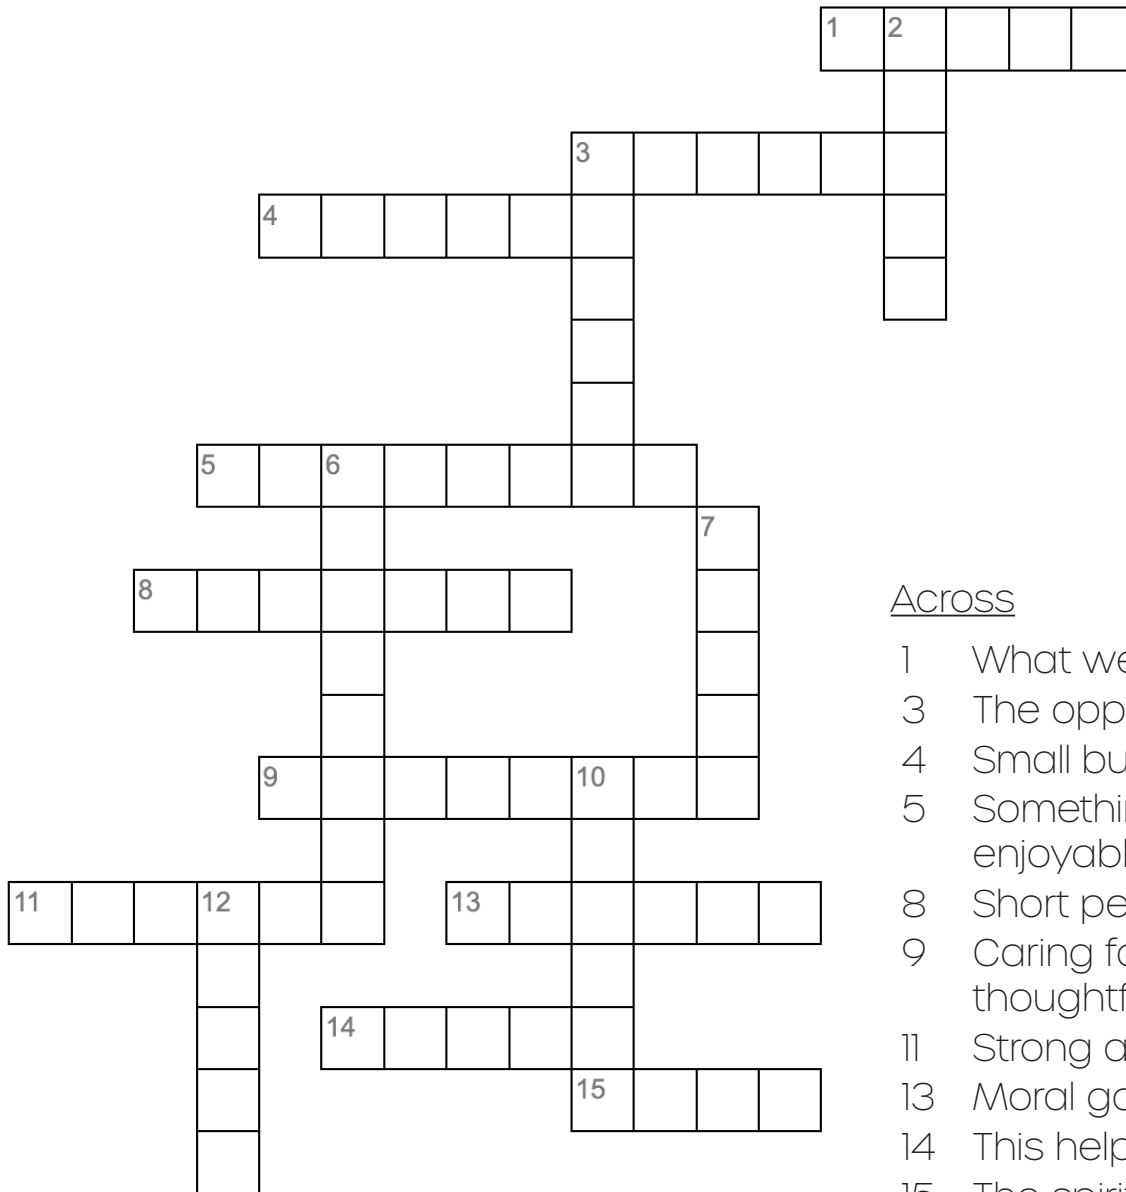

Little drops of water,
Little grains of sand,
Make the mighty ocean
And the pleasant land.

So the little moments,
Humble though they be,
Make the mighty ages
Of Eternity.

So the little errors
Lead the soul away
From the paths of virtue
Far in sin to stray.

Little deeds of kindness,
Little words of love,
Help to make earth happy
Like the Heaven above.

RIDDLES

RIDDLE 1

I scuttle and crawl on the ocean floor,
But plain and simple? Oh no, not this shore!
With seaweed and shells, I dress up in style,
A clever disguise that makes you smile!
My fashion's not random—it's part of my plan,
To hide from the creatures that chase while I ran!

What am I?

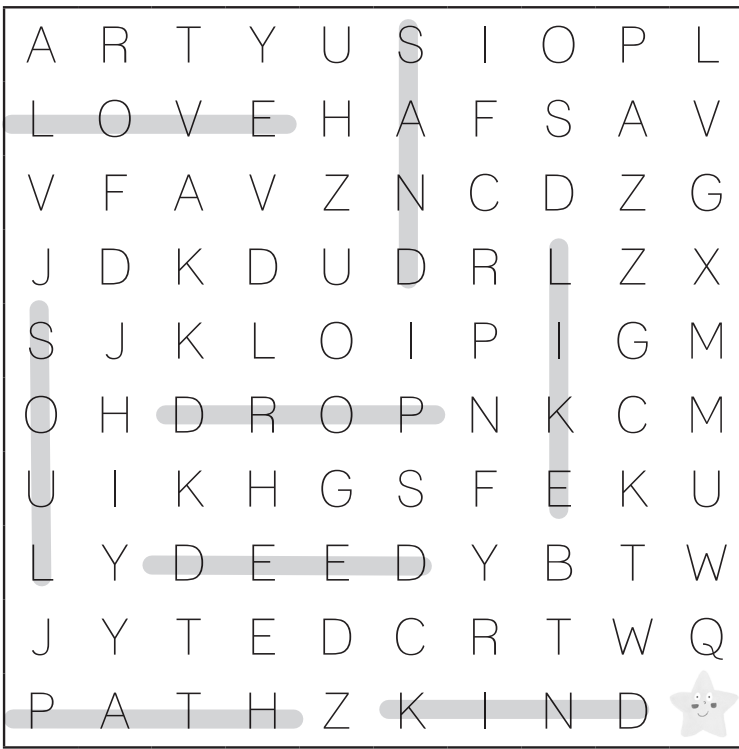

RIDDLE 2

I spin and I dance in space every day,
Keeping my home not too close, not too far away.
With oceans so deep and mountains so high,
I carry the air, the land, and the sky!
I have just one moon, and a warm, cozy crust,
A place God created for life—that's a must!

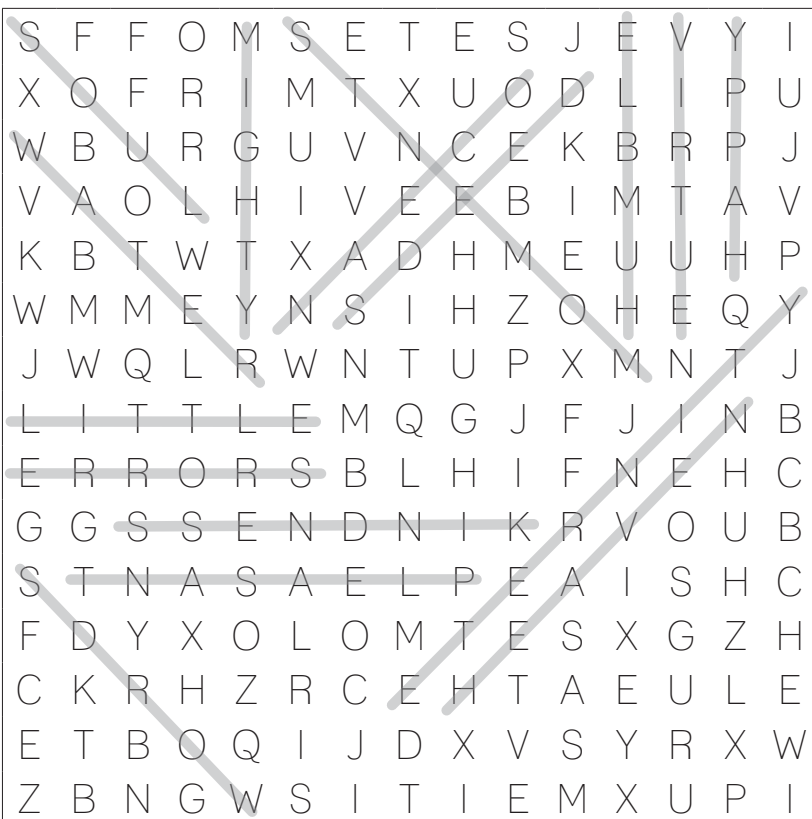

What am I?
